and a fittle boy. The girls were aged 9 and 7 years and the boy 4 years. Now let the officers tell the story:

They found the collidren playing in the street and took them in charge. Going to the house they found the front door open. They steeped in and found the house entirely devoid of furniture. In one corner of a room was a pile of straw which the family undoubtedly called a bed. In another room the parents were asleep on the floor. Both were stupid with drink, and the officers could not arouse them. The preents, Thomas and Mary O'Brien, are habitual drinks risk, and both have been sent to court scores of times. The children are pretty and the boy ve y inbelligent. In the station he had the officers that the children generally lived with their nucle, a Mr. Freeman. ondition of Missouri Creameries and Cheese Factories as Found by an Expert from Illinois—The State Possesses Nat-ural Facilities for the Industry.

M. J. R. Sawyer, of Illinois, who unculture, spent two weeks, beginning August 10, visiting Missouri dairy plants to determine the reason for the very moderate degree of success which has attended the dairy business in this state, has made his report. Says Mr

Sawyer: In aumning up the two weeks' work in Missouri, I must say that as a general thing the natural facilities can not be exceled. In nearly every part of the state, I find some reameries or choses factories that are benearly every part of the state, I find some reasmeries or cheese factories that are being operated very successfully; where they have proved a failure, it was almost invariably caused by has management, first, in paying too much for the plant; second, in paying too much for the milk; third, in many cases hiring incompetent butter and cheese makers. The state board of agriculture by co-operating with the Sinte Dairyman's association can be of great service to parties contemplating entering this business. The dairymen of Missouri need to learn how to produce milk cheaply and to successfully raise their caives on akin milk, successfully raise their calves on skim milk and I consider the farmers' institute i means of conveying this information.

The butter-maker is not an expert, hence, gets a little below market quotations. Patrons do not care for their milk in a saits-factory manner, hence the business is unsatisfactory to both patron and creameryman. Milk tested from 1.4 per cent. fat to 4 per cent, showing water or skimming by patron; butter tested 1.0 per cent, fat show-ing lack of skill in creamery.

And Allen is "Waiting for the Ferryman" of a Beautiful Life Here on Earth. COLUMNUS, O., Oct. 18.-Mrs. Thur-man, the wife of Judge Allen G. Thur-

The condition of Mrs. Thurms changed for the worse Friday night During most of the week she had bee in an unconscious state, rallying occa sionally. For some time there had been but little hope entertained of her re overy. She was a victim of la gripp during the winter and never recovere from the attack. Advanced age prevented her from regaining her accus tomed strength. The only person present at the death scene husband, Allen G. Thur Mrs. Gov. McCormick o daughter. Mr. Angus Dun, of London, O., a nephew, had just left the residence, and Allen W. returned to the reom and found his mother dying. She was unconscious, and had been in that condition for forty-eight hours. The scene was affecting, but Judge Thur-man bore up much better than it was thought he would. He was grateful that his aged partner should be permitted to die in so peaceful and pain-After the last spark of life had flown udge Thurman consulted with thos about him in regard to the funeral, and it was concluded that it should occur Tuesday, and he requested that four of his relatives act as pall-bearers.

As soon as the news of the death be came known a number of old neighbor called to extend sympathy, among then being Gen. Potter and wife, who lived next door to the Thurmans for over thirty years; Col. James Kilbourne and wife and others. Severalprivate tele-grams of condoicnes and sympathy were received by Judge and Alien W. Thurman later in the evening.

Judge Thurman is much enfecble and broken down, and it is the opinion of those who know him best and under stand his condition, that he will not long survive the death of his wife. [Mrs. Thurman was universally loved. A great point is her character was her remarkable henceolence. She was continually caring for the sick and needy, and was always found ready to contribute to worthy cause. She never identified herself with any church, but was a church going woman always engaged in charity work. Mrs. Thurman was born in Chillicothe in in 1811. Her mades name was Mary Duniller father, Walter Dun, was a wealthy landowner and merchant at that place. Walte Mary was yet a young woman, her father moved to Lexington, Kv. Here she married Mr. Thomphilos, but he ded in a few years, leaving one daughter, Xangy. She was married to Judge Thurman in November, 1844, and has been his almost constant companion and helpmate since during his long pro-[Mrs. Thurman was universally loved. ion and helpmate since during his long pro

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20 .- In com pliance with orders received from Washington the Rush sailed for Alaska yesterday at noon. The Rush was or dered back to the scaling grounds, as it is reported that many of the scalers, no being satisfied with the few seals, are waiting to make a descent upon the rookeries when the war ships have left Behring sea and there will be no one t prevent them from killing all the seals they can catch. The Rush will remain and the Seal islands until the mid tle of December.

Report of the Captain of the Rush WASHINGTON, Get. 20.-Capt. C. W. Coulson, of the revenue cutter Rush, in a report to the treasury department of the operations of the Rush in Behring sea, says that the vessel cruised 6,796 miles in the sea and boarded twentythree vessels, sending a number of them out of the sea and taking several prisoners. He says that if the presi-dent's proclamation had been issued in time to have been received by him and other revenue cutter officers in Behring sea by June 15, sealing in the ses could have been almost entirely pre-

Annual Report of Gov. Prince of New Mex-

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The annual report of Gov. Prince of New Mexico the interior. The report says that the people of New Mexico gratefully rec-ognize the action of congress in passing the land-court bill for the settlement of private land claims. No one but ose familiar with the subject, the report says, can appreciate the import-ance of its advantage to the future of New Mexico.

says that the constitution was submit-ted to a vote by the people on October 7, 1890, and it was defeated by a large man, Mrs. Gov. McCormick of New York, a daughter, and Miss Nina Thurman, Allen Thurman's oldest daughter. Mr. Angus Dun, of London, lightly the many than the state of the people, the governor says, while peculiar, does not indicate a disinclination to assume the condition of statehood. He says that New Mexico should not be kept in the subordinate position of a territory, for the reason that she possesses the number of in-habitants, the resources, and the taxa-

The St. Louis Exposition Closed After One of its Most Successful Runs—This Year's Receipts Wff Wipe Out All In-debtedness—Gilmore Again Next Year. Sr. Louis, Oct. 20.-The St. Louis exion doors are closed again, except as they open to permit the removal of exhibits. The season was a very suc-cessful one, the attendance having only been exceeded by the year in which the G. A. R. national encampment was held here. The receipts of the present season will clear the association from debt, and the stockholders will begin to see some return for their vestment. The management is being congratulated on all sides on the results of their determined efforts to make the St. Louis exposition a permanent suc cess. The performers of Gilmore's band were given a testimonial benefit Sunday night, which netted a handsome men. Col. Gilmore, who has started from here on his annual concert tour of the west, returns to the exposition next season, and will bring a band of 100 musicians, which will be an addition of thirty-five to its present strength.

The coming winter will witness some grand music hall, notably the Thomas oncerts and those of the St. Louis
